

Resonate Now - June 2022

Hello everyone!

It's June, the weather is warmer and we are excited to be celebrating together with 'In the Joy Fantastic', a day of celebration at the Wallace Collection on June 5th. Join us for a bit of a party, live music and art workshops, as well as a chance to see our amazing artwork! If you haven't yet organised anything to do to help celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, then this is your chance! A schedule of activities is included in this newsletter, just get in touch if you'd like to book a place.

This is a great opportunity for me to say 'hello' properly, my name is Sam and I joined Resonate Arts last week as the new Director. I am so pleased to have joined this unique and brilliant organisation and I am very much looking forward to meeting some of you over the next few months. I am a visual artist and have experience in running and managing arts programmes for, and with, different communities. On my very first day in the job, I had the pleasure of singing with some new friends at Sing with Friends, Wigmore Hall and was bowled over by the warmth, energy and fun coming through from everyone in the room, as well as some impressive solos from regulars! Over the coming months you'll be hearing more about upcoming programmes and activities as well as opportunities to tell us what you think about Resonate Arts and what kinds of creative activities you'd like to get involved in.

We have some very exciting news to share - over June we will be welcoming our new member of staff, Sofi Mogensen, who will be working as a full-time Projects Manager! Sofi will be supporting and growing our Creative Befrienders programme as well as various other projects. We'll be saying hello to her properly in next month's newsletter.

Other headlines news

We have been continuing the arts based cognitive stimulation therapy project with the Victoria & Albert Museum this month. Our 'Creative Space' in Soho, monthly on Mondays, is for people living in Westminster. A recent workshop there involved 'Aromatic Printing' and 'drawing with sound' led by one of our wonderful volunteers, Melissa.

Coming up in June and July are two lovely musical activities to get involved in, Opera for Thought with Opera Holland Park or Music for Thought with Royal Academy of Music and Wigmore Hall. There are a few places left so please call or email us for more details.
